OFFER OF EARLY HELP

Definition:

“Providing early help is more effective in promoting the welfare of children than reacting later. Early help means providing support as soon as a problem emerges, at any point in a child’s life, from the foundation years through to the teenage years”

Working Together to Safeguard Children, DfE, March 2015

Early Help is offered when we identify a need to help a child or family as soon as problems start to emerge, or when there is a strong likelihood that problems will develop in the future. The Gloucestershire Early Help and Targeted Support Team is made up of local teams of professionals who deliver practical advice and support to children, young people and their families.

Early help is offered by Whiteshill for the following areas in collaboration with other agencies:

- Speech and language delay
- Domestic abuse

- Gender based violence (violence against women and girls, including FGM)
- Parental mental health
- Healthy eating and nutrition
- Child and adolescent mental health
- Family support including Gloucestershire Families First Plus Team

Help is offered by a wide range of professionals including:

How can I access this service?

If you have some concerns a good starting point is to come and discuss your concerns with the Headteacher, Mrs Bainbridge, or our Family and Pastoral Support Worker Mrs Tompkins, who can on your behalf, make a referral on an Early Help form to the Gloucestershire Early Help and Targeted Support Team.

If your child is pre-school age, GPs, Health Visitors and Children's Centre staff all know about the Early Help Service and can help to make a referral if that is what you think would help.

Our approach is to work closely with families and to hold Team Around the Child (TAC) meetings so that everyone is clear about what we are trying to achieve and who is doing what to help the children and/or family.

Before we can start to work with your family we need your consent. Our service is confidential and you will be asked for permission for us to speak with other relevant professionals on your behalf.
